

Region of Waterloo schedules 500 candidates in 4 hours with interviewstream

About Region of Waterloo

- Region of Waterloo is a regional municipality located in Southern Ontario, Canada
- Employs 3,300 people

Client Challenge

- Region of Waterloo were spending over 1,800 hours per year, the equivalent of one FTE, just on scheduling all of the recruitment events.
- The Region had a rule of thumb to interview at least three to five candidates per vacancy, and in most cases, they would conduct more than one recruitment event, followed by a second interview. The amount of time spent scheduling was taxing on the Region's hiring resources in terms of time and the tediousness of the back-and-forth emails.
